

2017 CODING AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTE

Schedule

Friday, April 28, 2017 | 8 – 4:30 pm | 7 Category II CME Hours

7:30 – 8 am	Registration
8 – 9 am	CGS/Medicare Part B – Juan Lumpkin <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2017 Updates</li> <li>• Hot Topic Issues</li> <li>• FAQs – What You Want to Know</li> </ul>
9 – 10 am	Avoiding the Pro Bono Podiatry Practice: Common Billing Errors and Audit-Related Risks Vincent Buttaci, Esquire Payer Audits remain on the rise—and are not going away anytime soon. This lecture will identify the most common areas of concern identified in audits of podiatry claims.
10 – 10:15 am	Break
10:15 – 11:15 am	Proper use of your EHR for Quality Outcomes Michael Brody, DPM Reporting Quality Care is the cornerstone to success under the MIPS payment program. Dr. Brody will review the high priority quality care activities that you need to perform and document in your practice to provide the best care for your patients and achieve the best possible score in the MIPS payment system.
11:15 – 12 pm	Practice Improvement Activities Michael Brody, DPM The second part of MIPS is called Practice Improvement Activities. This is a fancy term for patient engagement. We will discuss various methods to engage patients in their care plan to improve outcomes and achieve the maximum score in the new MIPS System.
12 pm – 1 pm	Lunch
1 – 1:45 pm	Advancing Clinical Care Michael Brody, DPM The final piece of the MIPS Puzzle is known as Advancing Care. This is simply a rebranded Meaningful Use, with a focus on having an impact on the quality of care. The busy work is gone and these measures focus on doctor to doctor communication and care coordination. By meeting these measures, you can work collaboratively with other providers in the community to enhance care and the bottom line of your practice.
1:45 – 3:15 pm	Anatomy of an Effective Billing Compliance Program: Viewing Fraud and Abuse: Risk Management as a Process not just a Manual Vincent Buttaci, Esquire Having identified the most common areas of concern identified in audits of podiatry claims, this lecture will provide a blueprint for proactively insulating your practice from the issue that can result in an overpayment or compliance issue.
3:15 – 3:30 pm	Break
3:30 – 4:30 pm	Podiatric Dermatology Coding Essentials Wayne Bakotic, DO Cutaneous biopsy techniques are simple and well-reimbursed procedures that may be used in the practice of podiatric medicine. Biopsy techniques will be reviewed, making notes of their indications, coding, and pearls to their application.

SPEAKERS

Wayne Bakotic, DO—Dr. Wayne Bakotic is a graduate of Barry University and the University of New England where he received a Doctor of Osteopathy. He continued his education in pathology. He completed pathology residencies at Baystate Medical Center in Springfield, Massachusetts and at the Mount Sinai Medical Center in Miami Beach, FL. He also completed fellowships at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York and at the Ackerman Academy of Dermatopathology in New York. He is currently board certified in anatomic pathology, clinical pathology, and dermatopathology.

Michael Brody, DPM—Dr. Brody is in private practice in New York and is the medical director at Network Solutions IPA. He is currently a co-Chair for the EHR Workgroup at HL7. He has worked with the Certification Commission for Health Information Technology (CCHIT), the US Technical Advisory Group to the International Standards Organization for Health Information Technology, Integrating the Healthcare Enterprise and other local, national and international organizations in the field of health information technology. Dr. Brody writes for Podiatry Management magazine and maintains the Health Information Technology website CMEonline.com. Dr. Brody provides consulting services to Sammy /ICS Software, PICA, and Webair.

Vincent N. Buttaci, Esquire—Mr. Buttaci counsels licensed healthcare providers, practices, and facilities on a variety of complex legal, regulatory, and institutional issues. These services include: handling general corporate structure issues, including the formation, reorganization, and/or dissolution of healthcare practices and other provider-related entities; representing clients before state healthcare licensing boards and agencies; and proactively advising clients on issues of regulatory compliance and the prevention of fraud and abuse. Mr. Buttaci's practice includes a special emphasis on representing healthcare providers, group practices, and licensed facilities in post payment actions and fraud investigations instituted by both governmental agencies and private insurance carriers. He has handled matters related to electro-diagnostic testing, improper business structures, physician self-referrals, medical necessity, and improper coding and claim submissions.

CGS – MEDICARE SPEAKER:

Juan Lumpkin—Provider Outreach & Education, Provider Relations Senior Analyst
